

Marriage and Associated Fees 2016

As a Church of England Church, we are required by law to charge statutory fees. There are also additional optional charges for a verger (who sets up the church and works behind the scenes during the service), an organist, bell ringers, the choir and heating (if required). There will also be an additional charge if you wish to make a professional video recording of the ceremony due to copyright law.

Here is a fees table for 2015. These are subject to change annually according to Canon Law.

Marriage Service & Registration	-	£413
Verger	-	£40	(charged as standard for all ceremonies)
Organist	-	£80
Choir	-	£80	(Subject to availability – minimum of 5)
Bells	-	£60	(Subject to availability – minimum of 3)
Heating	-	£40	(charged as standard between Oct & April)

A Marriage Blessing following a Civil Ceremony

If you would like to hold a separate service of blessing following your marriage in a Civil Ceremony we simply ask for a donation towards the costs of the service in the region of:

The Blessing of a Marriage following a Civil Ceremony - £212

If you require an organist, verger, choir or heating to be added to the ceremony, then standard fees apply.

The Blessing of a Marriage and the Renewal of Marriage Vows

If you would like to renew your wedding vows after many years of marriage or following a particularly difficult period in your marriage which you and your partner have now thankfully overcome, then we simply ask for a donation towards the costs of the service in the region of:

The Blessing of a Marriage and the Renewal of Marriage Vows - £212

If you require an organist, verger, choir or heating to be added to the ceremony, then standard fees apply.

The Reading of Banns

If you require a Banns to be read and a certificate to enable you to be married in another church, but you live in Geddington or Weekley, then the following charges apply:

Publication (reading) of Banns of Marriage	-	£28
Issue a Certificate of Banns	-	£13